

How to... Highlight Categories in NaView

A Category in Nalytics is a type of data. Names, emails and phone numbers are all example of Categories. When creating a SAR, screen 6. shows you the Categories that Nalytics is able to identify in your data, and it is here you can select which categories you want to automatically redact.

- 1 In NaView, click NaView Tool Kit and choose Highlight Categories

Categories in NaView will now have a coloured underline

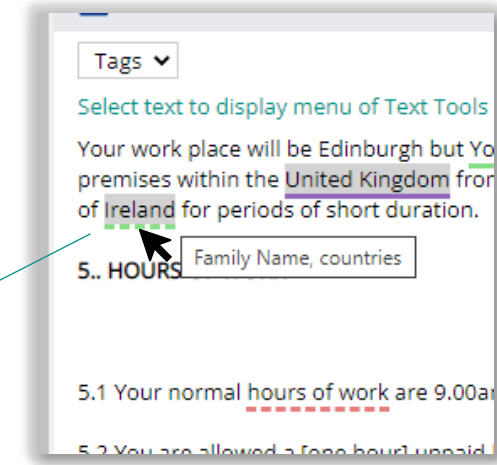

How to... Highlight Categories in NaView

To display the Category a term belongs to, point to the term

A tool tip appears containing the Category name

A dashed line indicates that the data falls into more than one category

Category highlighting is turned off by selecting Unhighlight Categories from the NaView Tool Kit

